Group 1 - Born in 2018: My First Words

Young babies and toddlers will love looking at the colourful pictures in My First Words. Pointing to the pictures and saying the words will help your child to recognise and name familiar objects.

Group 2 - Born in 2017: Boo Boo and the Baby Giraffe

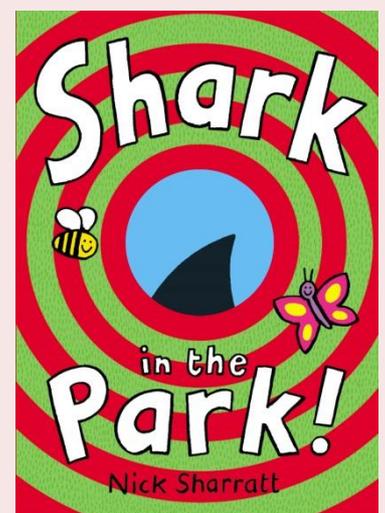

Boo Boo Baby has lots of fun bouncing from animal to animal – but here comes a... rhino! “Boo hoo!” says Baby Boo Boo, so the animals comfort her, bouncing her back to bed.

This is a wonderfully soothing bedtime story from the author of Handa's Surprise.

Group 3 - Born in 2016: Shark in the Park

Timothy Pope, Timothy Pope, what can you see through your telescope?

Join a little boy on a trip through the park. Is that really a shark he can see? Look through the die-cut hole and then turn the page to find out... A hilarious peep-through board book from the bestselling Nick Sharratt.

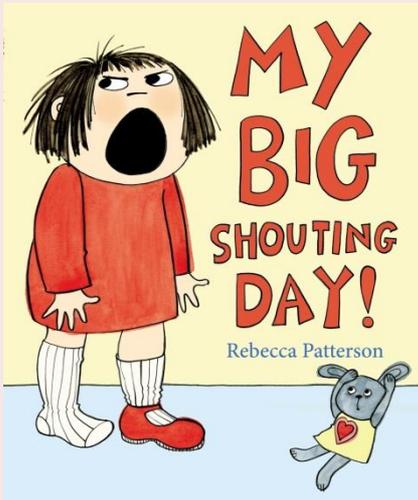

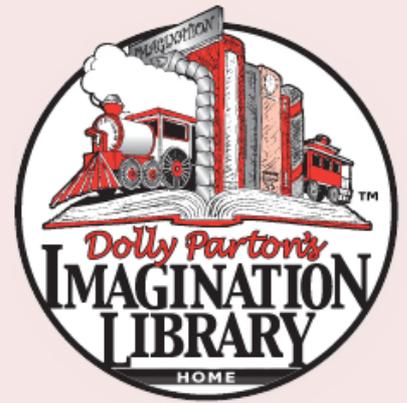

Have fun talking and sharing books

Children need to talk a long time before they learn to read; sharing books is a great way to help your child's language development.

Group 4 - Born in 2015: My Big Shouting Day

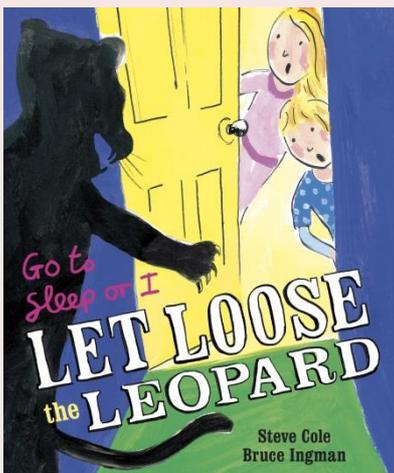

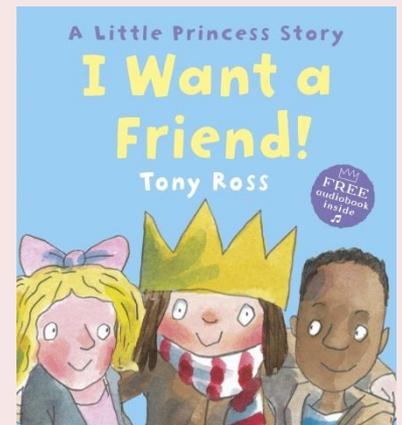

Winner of the Roald Dahl Funny Prize 2012

"Today I woke up and Bob was crawling around MY ROOM, licking MY JEWELLERY, so I shouted GET OUT OF MY ROOM! And that was the start of MY BIG SHOUTING DAY..."

Bella is having one of those days – her biscuit is broken, she has a hurting foot and ballet is TOOOO itchy for words. All she can do is shout! But by the end of the day, when she's all tired out from being shouty, Bella knows there's one magic word and one magic mummy to make things better again...

Group 5 - Born in 2014: I Want a Friend

The Little Princess can't wait to start school! At first, she finds it difficult to make friends and she is left all alone. But she soon finds there are other children with no friends, and before she knows it she has more friends than she can count!

Group 6 – Born in 2013: Go to Sleep or I Let Loose the Leopards

It was Joe and Ellie's bedtime. But Joe and Ellie were not in bed. The New Babysitter tries all kinds of tactics, but to no avail. However the New Babysitter has one last trick up her sleeve: "Go to sleep or I let loose the leopard!" But she couldn't, she wouldn't... would she?
