

Books of the Month

September 2018

Group 1 - Born in 2018: Is This My Nose?

Can you find your nose, eyes, ears, mouth and chin? This vibrant book encourages little ones to associate words and pictures with their own bodies. Look in a mirror to help them discover their own faces as you read aloud together.

Group 2 - Born in 2017: My First Numbers

This fun board book introduces young children to first concepts and themes. A great introduction to first numbers with fun little rhymes to teach your toddler how to count from numbers one to ten. Little ones will be encouraged to look and find, and talk with parents about what they can see. Count the items together in this fun, beautifully illustrated book and extend your child's vocabulary using rhythm and rhyme. A colourful board book packed with big learning ideas for curious little minds.

Group 3 - Born in 2016: My Book Of First Words

My Book of First Words is the perfect companion for children just learning to spot and name, or learning to recognise words. Bright illustrations bring to life all the key objects and favourite things from a child's world.

Have fun talking and sharing books

Children need to talk a long time before they learn to read; sharing books is a great way to help your child's language development.

Group 4 - Born in 2015: Nightbear

From the winner of the Roald Dahl Funny Prize comes a warm and witty look at the life of one special teddy bear. Travel with him as he comes from his factory to his first home, from the charity shop to a new home. But what can he do best when there are other bears who make themselves very useful indeed?

Group 5 - Born in 2014: Plenty of Love to Go Round

When Binky the cat moves in next door, Plum can't understand why everyone likes him so much. But she soon learns that there's no need to be jealous and there's plenty of love to go round.

Inspired by her hugely popular Plumdog Blog, this charming story explores how to deal with feelings of jealousy.

Group 6 – Born in 2013: Katie Morag and the Big Boy Cousins

Welcome to the Island of Struay, home of one of the best-loved characters in children's books and as seen on TV - Katie Morag McColl!

As soon as Katie Morag's Big Boy Cousins arrive on the island for their holiday they start causing havoc. Katie Morag can't resist getting involved in all sorts of mischief with them.

Find out what they get up to and join them for a beach BBQ with Grannie Island.
