

Books of the Month

December 2018

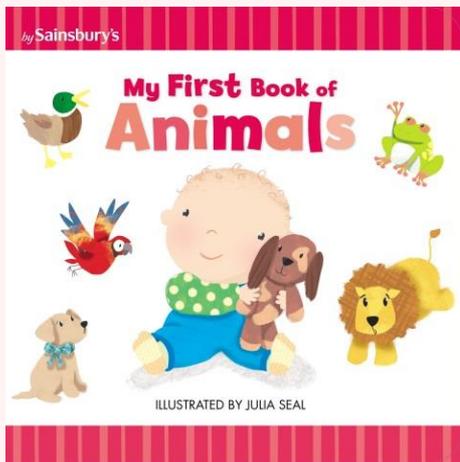

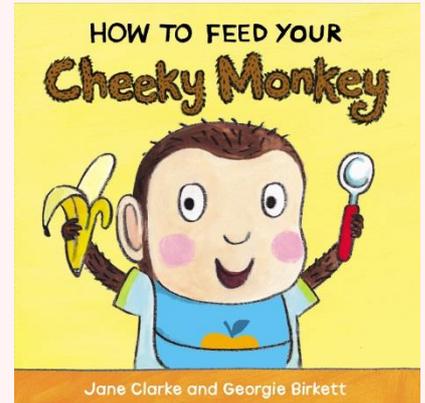

Group 1 - Born in 2018: How to Feed your Cheeky Monkey

Cheeky Little Monkey wants something to eat.

Pop her in the high chair and grab her favourite treat . . .

A board book about meal time featuring a cuddly little monkey

Discover the big moments and daily routines of every toddler's life, with lovable animal characters and a playful, rhyming text. Each story features a child and their very own baby animal.

Group 2 - Born in 2017: My First Animals

My First Book of Animals is an introduction to the animal kingdom with bright, lively animals and fun sounds to read aloud together. An ideal addition to any child's first learning library.

Group 3 - Born in 2016: Mister Magnolia

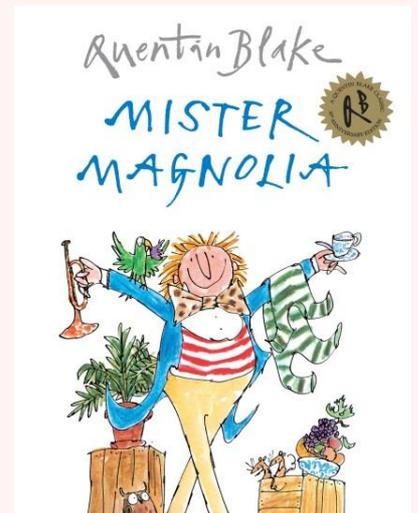

Mr Magnolia has only one boot.

He has an old trumpet that goes rooty-toot -

And two lovely sisters who play on the flute -

But Mr Magnolia has only one boot.

In this wittily rhyming picture book, Mr Magnolia has a full and happy life except for one serious omission - a boot. But one day, he receives a mysterious parcel, and at last Mr Magnolia can splash in the puddles with everyone else!

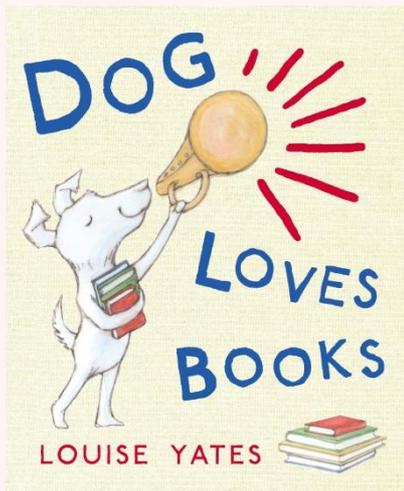

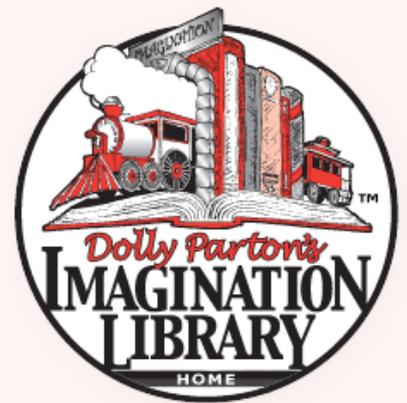

Have fun talking and sharing books

Children need to talk a long time before they learn to read; sharing books is a great way to help your child's language development.

Books of the Month

December 2018

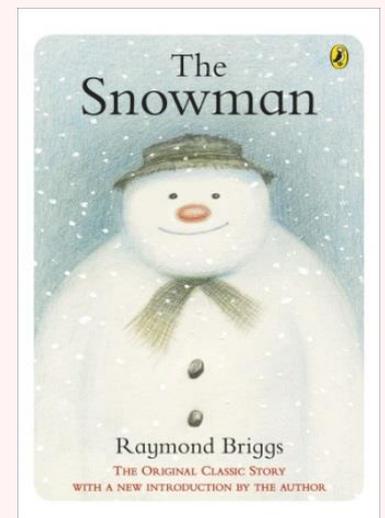

Group 4 - Born in 2015: Dog Loves Books

Dog loves books! Dog loves books about dinosaurs and Dog loves books about aliens: in fact Dog loves all books! Dog has his very own bookshop, although he doesn't have many customers. But that's all right, because when Dog is surrounded by books, he is never short of friends or fun.

And when someone does come into the shop, Dog know just which books to recommend...

Group 5 - Born in 2014: The Snowman

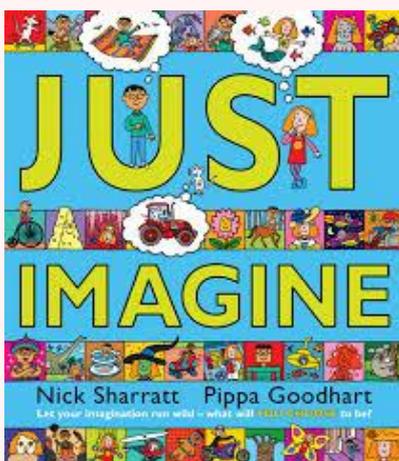

One winter's night, a snowman comes to life and an unforgettable adventure begins. Raymond Briggs' favourite classic is a true piece of Christmas magic – narrated entirely through pictures, it captures the wonder and innocence of childhood and is now recognised throughout the world.

Group 6 – Born in 2013: Graduate Book Just Imagine

Just imagine what it would be like to be as small as a mouse; or as big as a house. Imagine exploring the depths of the ocean, travelling into the past or the future – or something even stranger...

This wonderfully inventive and interactive book allows a child to tell their own story, combining new elements each time. And with intricately detailed illustrations for parent and child to pore over together, this is really is a book to share time and time again.

Have fun talking and sharing books

Children need to talk a long time before they learn to read; sharing books is a great way to help your child's language development.

