Jungle Jamboree
Fun things to do!

This book brings the jungle to life in a vibrant explosion of colour. Get creative with paints, crayons and pencils and make your own explosion of pattern and colour!

Find out six ways art and craft helps children learn. Creative activities help make vital connections between the different parts of a child’s brain. Doing art and craft when you’re very young can promote mental wellbeing, www.bbc.co.uk/cbeebies/joinin/importance-of-art-and-craft-for-children

Children love to read about things they have done or about people important to them. Making a memory book is a way to build their self-esteem and confidence. https://small-talk.org.uk/3-5-years/read/make-memory-book/

Making ten minutes a day to share books with your child will make a huge difference to their development www.northlincs.gov.uk/imaginationlibrary

Who will be crowned the most beautiful of all at the Jungle Jamboree? Lion, Leopard, Hippo, Zebra? The jungle creatures all try to change themselves in this beautiful book, bursting with wild splashes of colour and hilarious animal antics. But Fly has a surprise in store - soon the animals learn that they are lovely just the way they are, and that kindness is the most beautiful thing of all.

Jungle Jamboree has a strong message about loving yourself just the way you are and the importance of kindness. Share all the things you love about your child with them. Encourage them to do the same with you, their family and friends.

Dance and sing along to ‘What I Am’ with Will and the Sesame street gang. Sesame Street: Will.i.am Sings "What I Am"
