There’s nothing more rewarding than doing an activity with your child – for both of you. Everything you do can make a big difference and will make being at home together more fun. For more ideas visit the Hungry Little Minds website: https://hungrylittle-minds.campaign.gov.uk/

Make some fruit kebabs - This is a fabulous opportunity to sample and name the fruits. Let the whole family join in.

Play dough caterpillars - Roll out some playdough and find bits and bobs to make the caterpillars features. Visit the Tiny Happy People page at the BBC website for a recipe to make your own dough: https://www.bbc.co.uk/tiny-happy-people/homemade-playdough/z4tdd6f

Leave threading - Find some leaves and use a hole punch or pencil to make some holes just like the caterpillar. Thread string or shoe laces through the holes. Great fine motor practice for little fingers.

Making ten minutes a day to share books with your child will make a huge difference to their development
