Mr Big is strong, Mr Big is tough, Mr Big is . . . well . . . BIG! He has just one small problem - because of the way he looks he just can't get people to stick around. How can he show them that although he may look a little scary, he is just a great big softy inside?

Draw Mr Big with Ed Vere.

Grab some paper and something to draw with and follow his instructions to get doodling away on BookTrust Hometime at:

Recognising and talking about feelings is an important part of building friendships. Play the faces and feelings game from the BookTrust at:

Mr Big Fun things to do!

Why not be in a band like Mr Big! Make your own musical instruments, using materials from around the home; try and make your own shakers, play your homemade guitar or bang your pots and pans REALLY LOUD!!!! You could also use your instruments to accompany you while singing songs like "I am the music man!"

Mr Big loves jazz music.

Why not listen to some jazz music like "Insane Blues" by Dan Burnett and move to the beat at:

Learning how to make friends is an important skill. This was something Mr Big found tricky . There's a lot you can do together to build your child's confidence and support them as they make new friends at school. Try these tips from Cbeebies at home:

Learn about gorillas in the wild with your child on the World Wildlife website:

www.worldwildlife.org/stories/what-do-gorillas-eat-and-other-gorilla-facts

Making ten minutes a day to share books with your child will make a huge difference to their development
