Join Spot as he takes his ball on an adventure to the park. Spot has lots of fun playing with his friends - and when he throws the ball too far, a new friend helps him get it back.

Where Shall We Go Today? Song

We're going to the park
We're going to the park
E i ady oh, we're going to the park!
We're putting on our hat...
We're walking to the park...
We're playing on the swings...
We're going in the car...

Tune 'Farmers in the Den'

Try singing songs to your little one as you get ready to go out – it's a great way to keep them entertained whilst you get them dressed. For 10 reasons why music is great for your child visit Tiny Happy People: www.bbc.co.uk/tiny-happy-people/benefits-of-music/zm87dp3

Spot Goes to the Park Fun things to do!

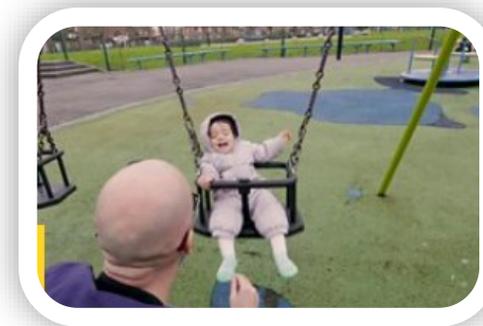

A trip to see the ducks in your local park is the perfect time to talk to your baby about the world around them.

Stop, chat and even sing about all the interesting things you see. For more ideas visit Tiny Happy People: www.bbc.co.uk/tiny-happy-people/visit-the-ducks/zdw9kmn

Getting out to the park is great for a bit of fresh air and fresh ideas for play.

Have a go at pushing your little one on the swings - make sure you face them and chat about what they're doing as they go back and forth. For more ideas visit Tiny Happy People: www.bbc.co.uk/tiny-happy-people/on-the-swings/zfg7rj6

TOP TIP: The back and forth of the swing is a bit like the back and forth of conversation - try saying things like 'where are you going?' and 'here you come!'. They'll love the chance to respond too.

Making ten minutes a day to share books with your child will make a huge difference to their development
