'And though we had no money I was rich as I could be, in my coat of many colours that mama made for me'.

Dolly Parton's rural upbringing in the Smoky Mountains of Tennessee provides the backdrop for this special picture book. Using lyrics from her classic song "Coat of Many Colours," the book tells the story of a young girl in need of a warm winter coat.

Goodnight with Dolly.

Coat of Many Colours Fun things to do!

Make a colourful coat. Recycle old fabric from things like worn out t-shirts, collect bits and bobs and old magazines and use to create your own coat of many colours.

Talk about things you love about your child and what they are good at. This will help build their self-esteem and confidence.

Visit Tiny Happy People for practical advice to help children feel safe, secure and comfortable talking about their feelings:
