"We're all Wonders" is a book that explores kindness and shows us that everyone is different but everyone is a wonder! This book is all about a boy called Auggie; he doesn't look the same as everyone else. But it's not just Auggie who's different. Everyone is different and everyone is a wonder if only they could see it.

Everyone is unique! The Box of Crayons Poem

We are a box of crayons,
Each one of us is unique,
But when we get together
The picture is complete

The Mirror Game. Helping your child to understand the link between facial expressions and certain feelings will help them to explain how they feel and how other people are feeling. Practise making different facial expressions in the mirror and talk about when you may feel like this. For more information watch Making Faces on BBC the website: www.bbc.co.uk/tiny-happy-people/making-faces/zhs77nb

We're All Wonders Fun things to do!

Build a rocket with a cardboard box
Why not build a rocket from cardboard boxes and recyclable materials and pretend to be an astronaut like Auggie.

Make a space helmet

You could make your very own space helmet using items around the house.

Watch the clip to learn how: <https://learnenglishkids.britishcouncil.org/video-zone/make-astronaut-helmet>

Watch a real rocket launch

Have you ever watched a rocket take off and launch in to space? Take a look at the NASA rocket launch: <https://youtu.be/UG3w3boGiS8>
