1. What is the Police and Crime Panel?

The Humberside Police and Crime Panel (PCP) forms part of the governance and accountability arrangements for policing in Humberside through their role in maintaining a regular check and balance on the performance of the elected Police and Crime Commissioner for Humberside (PCC).

While the Chief Constable has full operational independence, the role of the PCC is to be the voice of local people in policing, and to hold the Chief Constable to account for delivery of the strategic policing and crime objectives for Humberside, as set out in the PCC's Police and Crime Plan.

2. What is an independent member?

PCPs have three types of member:

- Local authority members – Councillors who are appointed by their councils to sit on the Panel .
- Local authority co-opted members – Councillors who are appointed by their local parties to enable the Panel to better meet the balanced appointment objective. and...
- Independent co-opted members – local people, who are not councillors, who are chosen through an open recruitment process and co-opted onto the Panel.

3. How many members does Humberside Police and Crime Panel have?

The PCP is made up of representatives from each of the local authorities in the Humberside Police area. This includes the unitary authorities of Hull, East Riding of Yorkshire, North East Lincolnshire and North Lincolnshire. Two non-political independent co-opted members of the Panel are also co-opted to add to the collective spread of experience and knowledge, bringing the total membership to 12.

There has been no appointment to the position of Chairman of the Panel. The current Membership of the Humberside Police and Crime Panel can be viewed online Humberside Police and Crime Panel - Committee details

4. Why be an independent member?

As a member of the PCP you can play a key role in helping to keep local communities safe by supporting and scrutinising the work of the directly elected PCC. It is an important and challenging role which offers you the chance to review the key strategic actions and decisions taken by the PCC, including whether they have achieved the objectives set out in their Police and Crime Plan, considered the priorities of local communities and consulted appropriately with the public. The Panel also plays an integral statutory role in the setting of the policing precept, reviewing complaints against the PCC and confirming senior level appointments.

Independent members have full voting rights and are encouraged to get involved in all areas of the Panel's work.

5. What do Police and Crime Panels do?

The PCP examines and makes recommendations on various aspects of the PCC's activity. In particular the Panel's powers include:

- reviewing the draft Police and Crime Plan
- reviewing (and having the power to veto) the PCC's proposed Council Tax precept levels
- reviewing and scrutinising decisions and actions by the PCC
- scrutinising the PCC's annual report
- confirming (and having the power to veto) the Chief Constable's appointment
- confirming senior officer (Chief Executive, Chief Financial Officer) and political roles (Deputy Police and Crime Commissioner) in the PCC's office
- reviewing the PCC's conduct
- to appoint an acting PCC, if required

In delivering their statutory responsibilities the Panel may also undertake a programme of proactive scrutiny, previously making recommendations to the Commissioner on varied topics, including new and emerging threats and areas of community concern.

6. How often does the Police and Crime Panel meet?

The Panel meets formally around four times per year. Meetings will generally be held during normal office hours at the Ergo Connects Centre, Hessle, but may also be held at varying locations throughout the Humberside policing area. Panel members will be able to claim reasonable travelling expenses and will receive an induction and other appropriate training.

Minutes of previous meetings of the Panel can be viewed online. Democracy | \(moderngov.co.uk\)

Responsibility for determining complaints has been delegated to a Complaints Sub-Committee which meets on an ad-hoc basis, when required. Presently, the Complaints Sub Committee is chaired by the Panel Chairman, but contains one of our Independent Co-opted Members.

Informal meetings and briefings can be held virtually using Microsoft Teams and therefore applicants would need to be able and willing to join such meetings, with support and training as necessary.

7. What will I be expected to do?

The role of a Panel Member is an important and demanding one. Members are expected to hold high standards of personal integrity at all times and to be respectful of others.

You will be expected to attend and participate in public meetings of the PCP and meetings of any working groups that you may be appointed to. During these meetings you must be willing offer constructive challenge, on sometimes difficult subject matter.

To be successful in the role applicants should have a keen interest in police and crime standards and community safety, the ability to be analytical and have the confidence to scrutinise.

You will need to be prepared to read papers, reports and background information in advance of meetings and keep up-to-date with national and local crime and disorder issues and maintain a good working knowledge of the PCC's role and responsibilities.

8. Are there any rules about conduct or standards?

At all times, PCP members must maintain the highest standards of conduct and ethics. You will be expected to abide by North Lincolnshire Council's code of conduct, as the host authority (copy available upon request).

For example: When carrying out PCP work you must not:

- Use your position improperly to advantage yourself, your family or friends; or
- Disclose confidential information.

If appointed, you will also be required to give details of any financial/pecuniary interests and such other interests as the host authority decides, in a register which is open to the public.

The Seven Principles of Public Life will apply which can be found at this Government website.

9. How much time is involved?

The commitment required from a co-opted independent Panel Member will depend upon the work programme approved by the Panel, but typically might average one day a month, including preparation time.

10. Will I receive any payment?

Members of the PCP can claim reasonable travelling expenses.

11. How long will I be a member?

Independent co-opted members will be co-opted for a four-year term, running until September 2025.

12. What qualities do I need?

You need to possess most, if not all, of the following competencies:

- a. The ability to think strategically: To have breadth of vision – to rise above detail, and to see problems and issues from a wider, forward-looking perspective – and to make appropriate linkages
- b. The ability to make good judgements: To take a balanced, openminded and objective approach – for example, in evaluating the priorities of the Police and Crime Commissioner, assessing candidates for top level appointments or considering complaints against the Police and Crime Commissioner.
- c. To be open to change: To be able to challenge accepted views constructively without becoming confrontational, and to recognise and respond positively to the need for change
- d. The ability to scrutinise and challenge: To be able to rigorously scrutinise and challenge constructively, using appropriate data, evidence and resources
- e. The ability to be analytical: To interpret and question complex written material – including financial and statistical information and other data such as performance measures – and identify the salient points
- f. The ability to communicate effectively: To be able to communicate effectively both verbally and in writing – and to interact positively with other members of the Panel, the Police and Crime Commissioner, and the public.

The following personal skills and qualities are also important:

- g. Team working: The ability to play an effective role in meetings through listening, persuading and showing respect for the views of others
- h. Self-confidence: The skill to challenge accepted views constructively without becoming confrontational.
- i. Enthusiasm and drive: To be pro-active in seeking out learning and developmental opportunities to enhance knowledge and understanding, for example on financial matters and statutory requirements.
- j. Respect for others: The capacity to treat all people fairly and with respect; value diversity and respond sensitively to difference.
- k. High standards of personal integrity: The necessity to embrace high standards of conduct and ethics and be committed to upholding human rights and equality of opportunity for all.
- l. Decisiveness: To show resilience, even in challenging circumstances, remaining calm and confident and able to make difficult decisions.

13. Who can be an independent member?

You must be at least 18 years old and must live or work within the Humberside policing area. The following may not be co-opted independent members of the PCP:

- a) Police and Crime Commissioner for Humberside
- b) a member of staff of the Police and Crime Commissioner for Humberside
- c) a police officer/member of the civilian staff of Humberside Constabulary.
- d) a Member of Parliament.
- e) a Member of the National Assembly for Wales.
- f) a Member of the Scottish Parliament.
- g) a Member of the European Parliament.
- h) a member of East Riding of Yorkshire Council, Hull City Council, North East Lincolnshire Council or North Lincolnshire Council.

14. What happens next?

Applicants will be informed whether they have been shortlisted.

A selection panel made up of PCP members will interview shortlisted candidates. Interviews may be held in person or virtually using Microsoft Teams. Support is available to assist you in using Microsoft Teams, if required.

The successful candidate will be recommended to the PCP for approval at the formal meeting of the Panel on 6 October 2021.
