

THE BEASTLY BUNCH

by Leisa Stewart-Sharpe & Pippa Curnick

The Beastly Bunch is a fun, colourful picture book that celebrates the importance of kindness and how we treat each other, not how we look.

Make a kindness jar.

Draw or write down different ways you and your family could be kind on small pieces of paper. Fold them up and put them in a jar. Practise kindness in your home each day by taking out an idea from your kindness jar.

Draw along with the illustrator from the book.

Have a go at drawing Flamingo Flo or one of the other characters that you liked from the book.

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Q0DvPPACshc>

Learning how to make friends is an important skill.

This was something Flamingo Flo found tricky. There is a lot you can do with your child at home to practise making new friends in preparation for them starting school.

Try these tips from CBeebies at home:

<https://www.bbc.co.uk/cbeebies/grownups/help-your-child-make-friends-at-primary-school>

I Am Kind

(to the tune of Frere Jacques)

*I am kind,
I am kind.
So are you,
so are you.*

*Being kind is awesome,
being kind is awesome.
All day through,
all day through.*

