

my MAGIC FAMILY

by Lotte Jeffs and Sharon Davey

In this story a little girl with two mummies shares the magic of her family and discovers how magic all her friends' families are too.

This is a great opportunity for a chat, as you can talk to your child about their family.

Picnic

Planning a picnic is a fun treat that will give your little one plenty to talk about. First, decide where you're going to have the picnic. It could be indoors or outdoors. Then you can chat about what you need. Let your child suggest some of their favourite foods or drink. You can have fun preparing the food and drinks together and talking about what else you might need, such as a blanket or napkins.

wordsforlife.org.uk/activities/planning-picnic/

Row, Row, Row Your Boat

*Row, row, row your boat,
gently down the stream.
Merrily, merrily, merrily, merrily,
life is but a dream.*

*Row, row, row your boat
Gently down the stream.
If you see a crocodile,
don't forget to scream!
Aaaah!*

wordsforlife.org.uk/activities/row-row-row-your-boat

Make a cosy reading space.

Can you and your child make a nice space for you both to read together. You could get cushions, blankets and teddies and cuddle up with a story or two.

Your child might also like to share a story with one of their toys. A love of books is great for building early literacy skills.

