

BUMPS IN THE NIGHT

by Allan Ahlberg and Andre Amstutz

An adventure story about a family of skeletons and their dog.

Can your child join in with the 'dark, dark' repeated parts of the story?

Making pictures from nature.

Go for a walk or look in your garden for sticks, leaves and stones. Chat as you walk, talking about the size and shape of the items that you have collected. Then ask your child to make a nature collage using what they have found.

This could be on the ground or on a piece of paper. They could make one of the characters from the story.

Family Drawing

Talk to your child about your family. Who lives in your house? Do you have any pets?

Give your child some paper, pens or crayons and ask them to draw their family.

Let your child lead the conversation and talk about what they are drawing.

Head, Shoulders, Knees and Toes

*Head, shoulders, knees, and toes, knees and toes.
Head, shoulders, knees, and toes, knees and toes,
and eyes and ears and mouth and nose.
Head, shoulders, knees, and toes, knees and toes.*

Can you miss out a word each time like Mr Tumble?
